

Wellesley College Wellesley College Digital Scholarship and Archive

Papers of Emma DeLong Mills: May-ling Soong
Chiang

Papers of Emma DeLong Mills (MSS.2)

12-18-1917

Letter from May-ling Soong Chiang, 1917-12-18, Shanghai, China, to Emma Mills

May-ling Soong Chiang

Follow this and additional works at: http://repository.wellesley.edu/mills_chiang

Recommended Citation

Papers of Emma DeLong Mills, MSS.2, Wellesley College Archives.

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Papers of Emma DeLong Mills (MSS.2) at Wellesley College Digital Scholarship and Archive. It has been accepted for inclusion in Papers of Emma DeLong Mills: May-ling Soong Chiang by an authorized administrator of Wellesley College Digital Scholarship and Archive. For more information, please contact ir@wellesley.edu.

Letter from May-ling Soong Chiang, 1917-12-18, Shanghai, China, to Emma Mills

Transcription

Dearest Dada:

Here is a letter to all the kids. I don't know as you had better send it to Beebe, as I did not send her any gift as I did to the rest. The reason is because we never had much in common, and she never even sent me an announcement of her engagement. Evidently you see, she cared as little for me as I do for her. But if you think it would be all right to send it to her, - why do so.

My face is almost all well now, - and I am tremendously glad. I have heard from Mr. Van {Eiviyk} many times, and he wants to come here to see me and [page break] take me back to India. You may imagine how the family feels. I do not know what I feel. Seems as though I need you here in my "disgraceful" blue kimono curled up on your bed. Has Grandad received the two cans of candies I sent?

The little round kind is made of the lotus flower; the other is sesame seeds. Which do you all like best. I've been to S.S. [and] Church lately. Feel disgracefully virtuous!

Love
Daughter.

This certainly is a skimpy note!

15-

Postmarked 18 December 1917

Dearest Sada:

Here is a letter to all the kids. I don't know as you had better send it to Beebe, as I did not send her any gift as I did to the rest. The reason is because we never had much in common. and she never even sent me an announcement of her engagement. Evidently you see, she cared as little for me as I do for her. But if you think it would be all right to send it to her, — why so so.

My face is almost all well now, — and I am tremendously glad. I have heard from Mr. Van Eivigh many times, and he wants to come here to see me and Take me back to India. You may imagine how the family feels. I do not know what I feel.

Seems as though I need you here in my "disgraceful" blue kimono curled up on your bed. Has Grandad received the two cans of candies I sent?

The little round kind is made of the lotus flower; the other is sesame seeds. Which do you all like best.

I've been to S. S. Methodist Church
today. Feel disgracefully virtuous!

Love
Sampster.

This certainly is a shumpy note!